your further testimony of the same, we, therefore, entertaining your kind offer and friendship, request you, that out of that love you will certify us the state and nature of that country wherein we are fallen by our lot, within four miles of Colraine, and on part of the Bann, and the fittest place for the erection of a principal castle, and how the country will afford us stuff and workmen; leaving to your judgment and report herein more than we wish or will set down, expecting only your answer and the pleasure you may do us, and leave wishing you prosperous health from the Allmightye. Your very loving friends,

JAMES CAMBELL,
WILLIAM BUCKNAM."

See Nicholl's Account of the Company of Ironmongers, pp. 385, 386.

As an illustration of the form of certificate reciting the denominations to be surrendered by the agent to each company, we quote the following "Briefe of the division of landes, ye No. 7, pertaining to the Worshipfull Company of Ierrongers, and other the Worshipfull their associats.—18 Nov. 1613:—

Athgeave [Aghivey] Grange	Ba. Reah. Refamore. Glaskard. Mullmore. Ballinegew. Colcrow.
Mulla Inch.	Dromstable. Skalltee. Knockduffe. Clonback. Ruskey. Clarhill. Clonken. Cormuncla. Shaltah. Claggan. Reeske. Mulla Inch Gortfaddy. Coolcapall. Ringrasse. Coddrum.
Ballene Fueigh.	Terkerlim. Gortglagon. Magheremew. Coolban. Statalurty. Dunmayne. Brackboy. Colroskean.
Forsett Mona [this ford on the Bann is now known as the Vow Ferry.]	Ballymore. Tedenbane. Treanaltena."
Moytulla.	Two Cullens.
Kannakille.	Ba. N. Nonta. Ba. Skanlan. Ba. Brack. Ba. Clogh. Colour. Dro. Crum. Ba. Willian. Killeah. Killnaglass. Ba. na. Cluntagh. Ba. na. Chan.
Agevenall.	Ba. Ohagan. Enishlom. Carrowrea. Tawnymore. Cah. Liskall. Lissaboy. Tallduffe. Lisnacreogh.